Why bring your event here...

The Georgia World Congress Center, located in the heart of downtown Atlanta, is one of the largest facilities in the United States and hosts a myriad of conventions, consumer/trade shows and corporate events each year. In 1976, GWCC was opened at 750,000 square feet, but high demand prompted the first expansion in 1985, creating an additional 1 million square feet. The second addition was in 1992, which made the GWCC 2.5 million square feet. The GWCC earned the title of second largest convention center in the nation in terms of prime exhibit space.

Where to Find the GWCC...

- ▶ The GWCC is centrally located in the Georgia International Plaza with 1,000 new parking spaces in addition to the 17,000 parking spaces within walking distance. Metropolitan Atlanta offers numerous award-winning restaurants and more than 10,000 hotel rooms in close proximity to the GWCC. The GWCC is accessible by 63 percent of the American population in two hours or less. This occurs through the use of Hartsfield Airport, MARTA, shuttles, and taxi services.
